

Burnin' Daylight! (Paperback)

By Dann Wallis

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. About The Book. As the author of Burnin' Daylight! Mr. Wallis provides a new, historic novel set in the period of the great American Civil War. A novel with more adventure.more romance.and more history of this critical period that shaped this nation and has become so fascinating for millions of Americans. The history of the early days of the Civil War is told through the actions and adventures of fictional characters in the style of Herman Wouk's The Winds of War and War and Remembrance. In the early days of 1861, two young men, one from a ranch in Texas and one from a farm in Iowa, leave the security of their homes and the love of their families to seek the adventure that may await each just over the next hill. While seeking to satisfy that wanderlust, they each volunteer to serve, on opposite sides, in this nation's bloodiest conflict. Thirteen months later, in the spring of 1862, they meet at the end of the second day of the most costly battle of the war's entire western campaign; the battle history would call Shiloh Church (Pittsburg Landing)...
